

Hermitage Army Headquarters, January 5, 1807, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

TO THE OFFICERS OF THE SECOND DIVISION.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The second militia division in all of what was then known as West Tennessee. Jackson was in command with the rank of major-general.

Hermitage, January 5, 1807

you are required, to have the men directed to be furnished by my order of 2nd instant Rendezvous and mustered into service, on the 8. 9th. and 10 Instant—Those from the 4th Brigade at Gallatine those from the 5th. Brigade at Nashville and those from the 6th. at Springfield, and in case marching orders are not Issued, as soon as they men are mustered, you will direct them to retire to their respective homes, to be ready to march at a moments warning. I have appointed Capt James Deshea muster master, and command all officers and soldiers to respect and obey him as such.